Local Rustlings.
We may have to scour up our matrimonial quill again next week. Cerrillos is one of the few towns that earns her bread from her own resources.

Children's missionary entertainment at the M. E. Church to-morrow night.

The prospect for war between European powers, is growing every day brighter.

Everything looks favorable for next year. All things good come to those who wait.

The ice season is nearly over and the enthusiastic Thomas and Jerry will again be in favor.

Alex. Rogers captured the copper ore premium with his San Pedro exhibit at the fair.

A majority of the Cerrillos and San Pedro railroad delegates were honored with places on the various committees.

It is a very rare thing for one of the big traveling shows to strike New Mexico points. Consequently everybody will go to see the Forepaugh shows.

The school furniture has at last been heard from. It was shipped from Milwaukee on the 13th inst. This will probably cause another week's delay.

Dr. Lane, J. W. Ricketts, R. Y. Anderson, Mr. Goodman, Frank Wilmarth, Peter Mackel, Alex. Rogers, and Mr. Bowman, of San Pedro, went down to the fair yesterday.

Mrs. Townsen brought a splendid large pair from their little ranch on the St. Marcus, this morning. Fruit raising is something our people should give more attention to.

The RUSTLER's special edition to be published Oct. 16th, is intended to benefit the Territory at large, and especially this portion of it. By that time the paper will be enlarged from its present size.

Rev. I. N. Crutchfield was married on the 3rd inst., to Miss Ollie Johnson. Rev. Robert Hodgson performed the ceremony at the residence of the brides father, on the Penasco. So says the Eddy Argus.

The RUSTLER neglected last week to mention the birthday party of W. H. Coleman Jr., given on the 5th inst. There was about fifty guests, the refreshments and presents were both nice, and the evening was socially enjoyed by all.

Geo. Green went after his lost horse, "Norman," the remaining one of the two that strayed from the Jemez Springs a month ago, on Randolph Kelley and Ed. E. Sluder's trip. He arrived home yesterday with the horse in good shape.

Virginia Dares, eleven years old, was fatally burned by a coal oil explosion at her father's house in Cerrillos, last Friday evening. The oil was used to kindle a fire. The little girl lived until Sunday afternoon, suffering great agony.

Mr. L. W. Morgan came in from San Pedro Tuesday evening, to meet his family on their arrival from Denver. They came in on the night train and departed the following morning for San Pedro, all looking bright and smiling as New Mexico sunshine.

The arrangements for starting a smelter are going steadily on. Everything is looking favorable for the "Little Pittsburgh." Cerrillos may be a bit hard up at present, but her pants don't bag at the knees, and she will get there next year with the leaders.

If Judge A. L. Morrison doesn't "pl" the New Mexican force for publishing the purported picture of himself which appeared in Friday's issue of that paper, he will be remiss in his duty. The picture resembles Melbourne, the rain King, in a hail storm, struck by lightning.

A full line of Dry Goods has just been received at the store of J. H. Gerdes & Co., Cerrillos, and such a line will be carried in future with their stock of Mens' Furnishing Goods. The ladies of Cerrillos are invited to call and see these goods. They will find them the latest styles and best quality.

A mining deal was made this week through the Cerrillos Exchange, by which interests were sold in the the S. C. Wright and Lucas properties at San Pedro. In a very short time two Huntington mills will be put up on these properties and the management will mean business from the go.

Peter Powers has opened the San Pedro hotel and is now ready to accommodate the public. The house has been thoroughly cleaned and improvements in a general way will be made in regular order. A cordial invitation is extended the public to give the hotel a trial under its new management.

Next week we will give in detail something of the proceedings of the railroad convention at Albuquerque now in session. So far the work of the convention is fairly progressing, but delays unavoidable sent many of the Cerrillos delegation home. To-night Hon. T. M. Patterson, of Denver, addresses the convention. Various committees have been appointed and good work will follow.

Col. Ned Wyncoop, than whom there was no better citizen, no more generous friend, died at his home in Santa Fe last Friday and was buried in the capital city on Sunday. His funeral was one of the most largely attended in the history of Santa Fe. With the entire public the RUSTLER mingled its sympathy for the family bereaved of a noble head.

The determination on the part of the public to make a fair in New Mexico a financial success, will doubtless cause other fairs to be held next year in the Territory. There should be a successful fair held every year at Santa Fe, Las Vegas and Las Cruces, as well as Albuquerque. With competition the fairs themselves would be better and the public more benefited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gould gave a reception to a large number of friends at the Palace Hotel last Saturday night. Refreshments were served in the dining hall. The guests enjoyed themselves socially and in a renewal of congratulations to the bride and groom. A large number of handsome presents were received, both from Las Vegas and Cerrillos friends.

The Cash Entry has transferred its operations from the Cash Entry shaft to the Central, which has given rise to rumors of a partial shut-down, etc. The facts are the hoisting and pumping machinery of the plant is at the Central, and this shaft was intended to be the operating shaft. It will be sunk to the thousand foot level and cross-cutted to the other lower levels in the different shafts.

The New Mexico Republican League and the Democratic Territorial Committee, both met in Albuquerque this week. The red wine flowed like gore down the channel between the two great conventions, the incessant popping of champagne corks resembled a battle between regiments of infantry, and all parties in the conflict shouted for statehood. New Mexico politics, in substance, is almost as much a farce as an Albuquerque fair.

M. B. Bowman, one of the engineers at the copper smelter at San Pedro, died of fever Sunday night at 12 o'clock, after an illness of about five weeks. Mr. Bowman was from Davenport, Iowa, from whence he had been sent by parties owning mining properties in this section to look after their interests, and when taken sick was completing arrangements to secure operative machinery for some properties in the south camps. His remains were embalmed at Albuquerque and shipped to Davenport.

Fair Notes.
Hon. Antonio Joseph is at the fair.

The parade Thursday night was fine, though not quite so good as last year.

Gov. Prince, Surveyor Gen. Robert and Register A. L. Morrison were fair visitors.

As usual Albuquerque was unable to take care of the great number of people who visited the fair. The people did their best, in many instances giving up their own beds for visitors.

There was a big crowd at the fair—larger than ever before. The exhibition was a little better, though not much different from last year. The improvement shown was in fruits, vegetable and mineral exhibits.

Santa Fe and Las Vegas people will deserve to be ridiculed if they do not go to work and organize fairs to be held next year. These fairs do good work in advertising the country and it has demonstrated that they can be made self-supporting or even paying. In all the states county fairs have been made a great means of developing, exhibiting and bringing in capital. There is no reason why Albuquerque should hold the only fair in the Territory. Santa Fe, Las Vegas and Las Cruces could get just as good a crowd, and then the different parts of the Territory would be shown up and three or four-fold as much good be accomplished. While organizing commercial clubs and boards of trade, don't forget the fair organizations. We need more and better fairs.

Temperance Meeting and Lecture.

Mrs. M. J. Bordon, President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of New Mexico, will be in Cerrillos on the 24th, inst., on the afternoon of which day a meeting of the temperance ladies of the vicinity is desired, at the M. E. Church, and at which place in the evening the lady will deliver a public lecture on the subject of temperance. Everybody invited.

The RUSTLER is late and somewhat neglected this week on account of the fair. Had to go to the fair, you know.

Personal Rustlings.
O. W. Alexander was down from the Pecos Monday.

Mr. J. H. Gerdes came down from Santa Fe Sunday.

D. D. Harkness was chairman of the Cerrillos railroad delegation.

Mrs. Mile, of Santa Fe, is visiting her sister Mrs. Mares, of Cerrillos.

Daniel Taylor has been doing good work for the mining interests at the fair.

Mrs. W. E. Dame has been visiting Mrs. Joyce Board, of Albuquerque, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Forsha visited Cerrillos a couple of days this week, from Santa Fe.

Steve M. Hale, our old section boss, is back with us again. He and family are welcome.

Mrs. Chas. F. Jones, of Springer, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Uptegrove.

G. W. North returned from Kansas City yesterday, bringing home with him a big Kansas watermelon.

Mrs. Geo. B. Bailey is over from San Pedro, helping care for her mother, Mrs. K. Green, who is still quite ill.

Messrs. Middleton and Joseph, Denver owners in the Lincoln-Lucky, were down and returned the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, of Wallace, attended the fair this week. Mr. Mitchell is bargaining for some valuable real estate in Cerrillos.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McLaughlin, and little Miss Gladys, drove over from San Pedro Wednesday evening, returning to the copper camp Thursday morning.

Mrs. Hosmer and baby Blaine Hosmer, (who will yet be a Republican statesman, if his mother has anything to say about it) came down from Springer Monday to visit Cerrillos and go to the fair. Mrs. Hosmer is an accomplished, candid little lady whom everybody will like.

The following Cerrillos people visited the fair: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Neis, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. North, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lemon; Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Nesbitt, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. U. C. North; Misses Bessie Sugar, Mira Harkness, Maude McCormac, Lucy Wadley, Maggie Jones; Messrs. C. W. Uptegrove, Dr. Palmer, Dr. Richards, Dr. Bishop, Edward Barker, Randolph Kelley, Hon. Chas. F. Easley, Chas. Lyons, Harry C. Kinsell, Judge D. D. Harkness, Richard Matthews, John Hulscutter, John Elder, D. J. Jones, A. E. Laudenslager, James Miller, J. A. Jackson, E. L. Griggs, W. H. Coleman, Chas. Sylvester, P. F. Hogan, Wm. Sanborn, W. C. Rogers, Mrs. Harry Scranton, Miss Allie Jones, Mrs. Kinsell, and possibly others whose names the reporter missed.

Send to Morton, the Fruit man at Santa Fe, for anything in the line of fruits and vegetables in season. General produce shipments solicited.

For Sale.

As I will leave Cerrillos on the first of October, all my household goods are for sale. All in first-class condition. Those wanting furniture, etc., will please call.

MRS. KATIE NORTH.

Notice.

All accounts due White, Giblin and Co., and S. C. White, prior to January 1st, 1891, were legally transferred to Richard Giblin. All persons knowing themselves indebted to White, Giblin and Co., S. C. White, or Richard Giblin, are hereby notified to come forward and settle their accounts within 60 days from September 1st, 1891, or same will be placed in the hands of proper persons for collection.

RICHARD GIBLIN.
San Pedro, New Mexico.

Adam Forepaugh Shows.

From the way in which this city and country are covered with the artistic pictorial paper of the Adam Forepaugh Shows, it seems like "carrying coals to Newcastle," to say that the great shows now on their 28th annual tour will exhibit at Santa Fe on October 6th and Albuquerque on October 7th, in all their regal magnificence.

The Adam Forepaugh Shows are well known as the oldest, largest and richest of all exhibitions. This year with three circuses, huge menageries, real Roman hippodrome, new Wild West, and famous foreign features, it eclipses its former self. Probably the greatest feature of this season is Colonel Edgar Daniel Boone and Miss Millie Carlotta, the celebrated European lion tainers, who will exhibit five forest-bred lions in a steel encircled ring. The lions will be harnessed to, and draw a chariot, they will play see-saw with a great German board-bound named "Saxon," they will form tableaux, ride tricycles, and do many other astonishing things while loose in the ring.

The famous Hanlon-Volters, appear for the first time under canvas with the Adam Forepaugh Shows this year. These remarkable artists will do double somersaults high in the ambient air, from swaying bar to swaying bar, fully sixty feet apart. Owing to the great height of the rigging and length of the leaps, the act cannot be done under a roof because there are not more than two or three buildings in the country large enough. In fact the great waterproof tents of the Adam Forepaugh Shows are the only circus canvases large enough. The act is entirely new and extremely hazardous.

There are more than 200 artists in the triple circus. Twenty female bareback riders, twenty-five male bareback riders, and in short, actors and acts of all kinds. In the hippodrome more races are given by intrepid riders and fiery steeds than in any other shows, Roman chariot races, modern running and trotting, mule and donkey, monkey and pony, elephant and camel, bag, wheelbarrow, man vs. horse, and many other races.

The Wild West is comprised of a great number of Indians, Scouts, Cowboys, Pathfinders, Indian fighters, Indian squaws and paposes, led by Capt. A. H. Bogardus and his sons, Champion Shots of the World. All kinds of Wild West scenes, historical, romantic, and comical are portrayed, the Ghost Dance, hanging a horse thief, Custer battle, etc.

In the menageries will be found one or more of every species known to Zoology, more cagefuls of animals than some shows have single ones. Adam Forepaugh, Jr., will present a huge herd of $50,000 trained and dancing elephants, and highly trained stallions, bronchos and dogs. The entire shows will surpass any exhibition ever given in such a way as to defy comparison.

Standing Committees.

At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees for the Town of Cerrillos, held September 9th, 1891, the following standing committees were appointed:

Committee on Finance, Trustees, Kelley, Miller and Dame.

Committee on Ordinances, Trustees, Miller, Green and Dame.

Committee on Streets, Alleys and Public Buildings, Trustees, Uptegrove and Green.

Committee on Police and Health, Trustees, Green and Uptegrove.

Committee on Water, Trustees, Dame, Miller and Kelley.

Committee on Claims, Trustees, Kelley and Uptegrove.

Committee on Printing, Trustees, Miller and Green.
